Please tick here if you are also a member of BirdLife Australia (for Club reference only).

The Hunter Bird Observers Club, with more than 300 members, is an incorporated club for people with an interest in native birdlife.

We encourage this interest by organising activities that enhance people's bird identification skills and promote the study and conservation of native birds and their habitat.

HBOC focuses its activities on the birds of the Hunter Region of NSW. Anyone who is interested in Australian native birds is welcome to apply for membership of the HBOC.

Aims of the Club

- To encourage and further the study and conservation of Australian birds and their habitat.
- To encourage bird observing as a leisure time activity.

Activities include

- Monthly evening meetings featuring informative talks and general discussion:
 - Second Wednesday of each month (except January), 7:30 pm at the Hunter Wetlands Centre, Sandgate Road, Shortland
 - Visitors and members are most welcome, to hear interesting and informative guest speakers.
- Monthly field outings, usually held on Tuesday and Sunday mornings, that cater for every range of expertise.
- Camps, mostly on private property, on Public Holiday long weekends.
- Regular surveys to record information about the local distribution of birds.
- These regular surveys include visits to targeted sites, counts of shorebird numbers, off-shore boat trips.
 - Members also have opportunities to take part in occasional additional surveys.

Benefits of membership

- Meet people who share your interest.
- Develop your bird identification skills.
- Discover new and interesting habitats.
- Learn more about the distribution and habits of local birds.
- Receive a newsletter every two months via email.
- Receive e-mail news items about interesting local sightings (through HBOC's Hunterbirding news and discussion forum).
- Receive an annual report about birds recorded in the Hunter Region during the year.
- Receive a high quality journal The Whistler that focuses on the birds of the Hunter Region.
- Borrow from HBOC's outstanding library:
 - Most books, journals, tapes, CDs, DVDs and digital images of birds are available for free loan to members.
- Opportunity to attend HBOC outings, camps and surveys all over the Hunter Region.
- Opportunities to volunteer and make positive personal contributions towards the welfare of native birds.
- Receive special discounts for HBOC members from Kathmandu, Survey & Instruments, Petech, NDF Camerahouse, Qs Books and Hunter Valley Zoo. Visit the HBOC website for more information.
